

20 YEARS FOR SLAYING; HOCH MIXTURE BLAMED.

Free for All Flight After Drinking Grain Alcohol.

Justice McIntyre in General Sessions heard today how a grain alcohol hoch mixture changed a loving consultation between the Ballas brothers and a steamship agent, over bringing their relatives to this country, into a free-for-all fight in which John Ballas stabbed Antonio Ballas to death. He promptly permitted John Ballas, charged with murder, to enter a plea of guilty to manslaughter in the first degree, which carries a sentence of not more than twenty years' imprisonment instead of death.

The story was told by Theodore M. Riehl and Frank Hendricks, lawyers assigned to defend Ballas. They said that Antonio Ballas, a moving picture actor, was eager to bring his mother and his wife and children to America, and John had hunted up a transportation agent for him. The agent, loaded with him a pint of grain alcohol, and they made it into drinks and sent him for more. After the second pint the brothers quarreled with the agent, who ran away, and, blindly infuriated, John attacked Antonio and killed him.

DIVORCE OR DEATH, CHOICE GIVEN WIFE, SHE DECLARES

Former Miss Endner Says Husband Threatened to Kill Her.

Mrs. Beatie Imperiale, nineteen, formerly Miss Beatie Endner, who a year ago was alleged to have taken $3,000 from her father's safe, with which she bought an automobile and toured New York State with two boy friends, was in Coney Island Police Court today as complainant against her husband, Peter Imperiale, whom she accused of sending her threatening letters.

On July 25, she charges, he addressed her a letter reading: "If you don't start a divorce or separation action I will kill you. I'll give you one week." Mrs. Imperiale said she and her husband had been married five months, that they could not get along together and she left him two months ago. She says she has received twenty letters of a threatening nature since. Imperiale pleaded not guilty and hearing was set for Aug. 4.

U. S.-NORWEGIAN PACT RATIFIED

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The Senate has ratified the treaty between the United States and Norway for arbitration of Norwegian shipping claims. The treaty, signed June 30, provides for an arbitral tribunal of three members to divide the claims growing out of requisitions by the shipping board during the war of vessels under construction in this country for Norwegians.

MUST RAISE $3,612 ON PAY OF $25 A WEEK OR BE JAILED.

Clerk, Now Remarried, Ordered to Give First Wife 10 Years' Alimony.

Unless Frank J. Ragette, a clerk employed in the auditing department of the New York Central Railroad, can beat a loan of $3,612, representing Mrs. Ragette's alimony arrears awarded Mrs. Ragette, he will have to go to jail, according to an order signed today by Justice McCook, adjudging Ragette in contempt of court.

Mrs. Ragette on May 29, 1911, was given $7 a week following her separation suit. Ragette now says the only papers he was served with were the summons and complaint in her action. It was not until May last that he learned he was in default. He says his wife left him. When she refused to live with him he went to Kansas City, where he obtained a divorce and remarried. He is now living in Yonkers with wife No. 2 and their child. All he has in the world, he says, is $25 a week salary.

BOY OF 13 YEARS STOLE TRIP FROM ITALY.

Had in Lifeboat, He Says, and Hid Off Ship at Pier.

A shabby little boy of thirteen who said he was Joe Motte was turned over to the children's society today after the police had obtained a queer story from him.

"My mother took me to Italy," he said, "leaving my father behind. But I like New York, so I climbed on a big boat and hid in a life boat. When
